

A FATHER'S GUIDE TO PARENTING

“ Part of being a successful father is taking extreme care of our children. The other part of that equation is that we must also take extreme care of their mother.

Vs

Tips

- Spend time with your child.
- Discipline with love and positive parenting.
- Be your child's role model.
- Earn the right to be heard.
- Be your child's teacher.
- Eat together as a family.
- Read to your child.
- Respect the other parent of your child.
- Seek involvement early.
- Be present.
- Sharing responsibilities equally.
- Involving your kids in creating rules and discipline.
- Teach your child independence.
- Involve children in family decisions.
- Support your child's endeavors.
- Stick to a routine.
- Ask questions.
- Do activities like dancing, cooking, gardening, etc. together.

Importance

- Impact the child's success.
- Contribute to healthy emotional development.
- Improve a child's general wellbeing.
- Provide financial support.
- Fathers provide another point of view for their children.